MACEDONIAN SCIENTIFIC INSTITUTE. SOFIA, 2018. 410 P.

MARIANA GEORGIEVA

This collection of papers is a scientific explication of the ways in which the diachronic and synchronic continuum unconditionally accentuates the unity of the Bulgarian language and its key role in the preservation of the cultural code of Bulgarians and our contribution as a people to the intercultural communication in the 21st century. The featured papers pose questions to the Bulgarian linguistic consciousness and put forward tasks to the grammatical paradigm as a whole. An updated concept sphere of the Bulgarian language is presented as well.
