LINGUISTIC STUDIES BASED ON BALKAN PARALLEL CORPUS

(Summary)

The paper presents a linguistic research based on a Balkan Parallel Corpus on a specific topic – the comparison of transpositions and modal values of the present tense in the languages of the Balkan Linguistic League (Bulgarian, Romanian, Greek and Albanian). It presents the process of building and using a parallel corpus not only for machine translation experiments, but also for linguistic researches and demonstrates, on the other hand, the work with the corpus on the chosen topic, based on the analysis of the texts.

Keywords: Balkan parallel corpus, transpositions of the present tense, modal usage of the present tense
